Eric Levenstein, ‘06CompE, ‘08TN, ‘01MBA
Candidate for Secretary

Eric Levenstein is a Computer Engineer for the Department of Defense and performs both technical and business activities. He actively uses the knowledge and skills he learned at Poly as both a student and member of multiple clubs and committees. He continues to be involved in Poly events and, as an Alumnus, tries to be a great representative for the school in his work and personal life.

PIAA Position Statement

If elected as Secretary of the Polytechnic Institute Alumni Association, Eric plans to try to keep Poly traditions and culture while attempting to innovate and adapt to the current changes taking place. Although an Alumnus, he still participates in Poly events and activities and continues to stay in contact with current students and staff members. He believes that this allows him to accurately represent our school as Secretary of the Polytechnic Institute Alumni Association.
