Joshua Washington ’07BTM, ‘10OB
Candidate for International Board of Directors

After finishing a strong high school basketball career at Mount Zion Christian Academy in 2003, Joshua committed to NYU-Poly to continue his basketball career and pursue a degree in business and technology management. After his playing career at NYU-Poly, Washington was hired to be part of the Women’s Basketball program at NYU-Poly as an assistant coach in 2007. In the summer of 2009, Athletic Director Maureen Braziel named Washington the head men’s basketball coach for our Fighting Blue Jays, making him the youngest head basketball coach in the country at the age of 24 years old. In 2010, he graduated with a master’s degree in Organizational Behavior from NYU-Poly.

Washington is currently an adjunct professor instructing a career planning course for NYU-Poly Career Management Center.

For full details, meeting agenda including proposed bylaws changes, and to confirm your attendance at the 2011 Annual Meeting of the Polytechnic Institute Alumni Association, please visit www.poly.edu/piaa/annualmeeting. If you are unable to attend in person, you are encouraged to vote by proxy.