

Dear Student Leader,

Thank you for your dedication to and interest in providing students with amazing extracurricular opportunities. Your efforts to build community and provide a connection to other students are greatly appreciated. Clubs and organizations at the NYU Tandon School of Engineering are vital to campus life by providing valuable social, academic, and leadership experiences, offering a wide variety of educational programming, enhancing the work of academic departments, and performing campus and community service. We appreciate the contributions and accomplishments that student organizations make on campus, and will continue supporting you and your clubs in these efforts. We also recognize the tremendous difference that student clubs and organizations have made and continue to make on campus. This is why we are aware and attentive to the needs of supporting organizations like yours by continually providing opportunities and resources for your organization and its leaders.

The Student Organization Handbook contains summaries of the policies, procedures, privileges, and responsibilities of recognized student organizations. It is designed to help you navigate your way to successful event planning, club management, and membership development. Please read the Handbook carefully and use it as your reference throughout the year. To maintain your recognition status as an organization, it will be necessary to be familiar with the policies and procedures, so that as you conduct business on campus you are in accord with the University. In addition to following University policies and procedures, at least four members of your Executive Board must attend one (1) required Student Leader Orientation (SLO) training per year. At these meetings your organization will receive updates to any policies or procedures as well as information about the many opportunities for organizations to get involved on campus. Your participation in this training confirms that you have read, understand, and will uphold the terms and conditions outlined in the Student Club and Organization Handbook.

The NYU Tandon School of Engineering Office of Student Activities and Resource Center is committed to providing you with the tools and support necessary to be successful in reaching your organizational and leadership goals. Please feel free to drop by the office to ask questions or garner resources on the endeavors your organization wishes to pursue. We look forward to seeing the creative and purposeful programming from each organization throughout the upcoming school year. Best wishes for a successful year, and thanks again for your contributions to the NYU Tandon School of Engineering community!

SECTION 2: RECOGNITION OF STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

TYPES OF ORGANIZATIONS

NYU Tandon School of Engineering is fortunate to have a variety of co-curricular organizations on campus. Organizations are categorized to better communicate their general purposes and activities to interested students. The Office of Student Activities and Resource Center describes organizations as belonging to one of the following categories:

I. Undergraduate Clubs

- Clubs with a majority (above 50%) undergraduate students on their Executive Board will be identified as an Undergraduate Club and will be assigned a Graduate Assistant (GA) from the Office of Student Activities and Resource Center.
- Clubs that are affiliated with national organizations that charge membership dues may collect dues from their members that correspond with national organization's fees. Clubs that are funded by the Student Activities Fee (through Student Council), and are not affiliated with a national organization are not permitted to charge their members club dues.

II. Graduate Clubs

- Clubs with a majority (above 50%) graduate students on their Executive Board will be identified as a Graduate Club and will be assigned a GA from the Office of Student Activities and Resource Center.
- Clubs that are affiliated with national organizations that charge membership dues may collect dues from their members that correspond with national organization's fees. Clubs that are funded by the Student Activities Fee (through Student Council), and are not affiliated with a national organization are not permitted to charge their members club dues.

III. Exclusive Organizations

- If your organization reserves the right to exclude its membership (choose members), then it is considered an exclusive organization and is not eligible to receive funding from the Student Councils. However, this does not mean that your club cannot be funded. Exclusive organizations may be able to receive funding on a case-by-case basis for events that are open to the entire NYU Tandon School of Engineering community. Exclusive organizations should request funding in writing to the Office of Student Activities and Resource Center.

RECOGNITION STATUS FOR ORGANIZATIONS

I. Incubation Period – Once clubs are accepted into the Incubation Period for the duration or time equivalent of one (1) semester, these forming student organizations are eligible for the following:

- Funding – Clubs in incubation will receive an initial allocation based on available funding at the time of recognition. In addition, incubation clubs may submit supplemental funding requests to Student Council as outlined in Section 3 of this handbook and in accordance with the Student Councils' supplemental funding guidelines.

- Events – Clubs in incubation must: host a minimum of two events and one fundraiser during their incubation semester.
- On Campus Space – Clubs may request any of the eligible spaces on campus per the Event Request Form on NYU Engage and following the guidelines in the Handbook.
- Directory Listing – Clubs are eligible to receive a listing on the online clubs and orgs directory with the explicit caveat, “in incubation”.
- Club Purchasing Card, Email Address, Locker, Banner, Mailbox in LC 223 – Clubs are not eligible for these items until completion of the set incubation period and when all the terms of this period have been met.
- OSARC Meetings – Clubs in incubation must meet with their appointed Graduate Assistant (GA) on a bi-weekly basis to work through OSARC processes and club goals.
 - Clubs must complete the Student Leader Orientation (SLO) training with their appointed GA.
 - Clubs must submit ALL General Body Meeting minutes to their GA within seven (7) days of the meeting date.
 - Clubs must submit the membership roster at the final incubation meeting of the semester.

If clubs fail to be officially recognized at the end of their incubation period, any fundraised money will be incorporated into Student Council funding to be allocated to clubs requesting funding.

II. Active Status – Once a club/organization completes their Incubation Period, the club will enter into Active status and be eligible for all benefits and privileges associated with Active status. To maintain active status, clubs/organizations must:

- Submit the Club Re-Recognition Form before the Spring deadline set by OSARC and at any time your organization elects new officers.
- Review and update the club constitution annually during the re-registration process
- Ensure that ALL executive board members complete a REQUIRED Student Leader Orientation (SLO) training in the Fall semester. Organizations that elect new officers during the Spring semester are required to complete the SLO training in the same semester. Only newly elected officers are required to complete the Spring SLO training
- Ensure that the president and treasurer complete the club purchasing card training at the beginning of their term (August for officers elected in the Spring; January for officers elected in the Fall)
- Meet with assigned Graduate Assistant at least once per month
- Have a faculty advisor
- Report any revision of the name, constitution and by-laws, or officers of your organization to OSARC. All revisions and changes must be made in accordance with the procedures prescribed within your existing constitution and by-laws
- Have at least one representative attend all Student Council General Body Meetings
- Host a minimum of three events per semester, with a majority of the events must be hosted on the NYU Tandon campus
- Track attendance, via the NYU Events Check-in App , at all events
- Maintain at least four executive board members and at least ten non-executive board members that are

NYU Tandon students.

- Officers must be currently enrolled or continuing NYU students, who maintain at least a 2.3 GPA (undergraduate) or 3.0 GPA (graduate).
- The President and Treasurer must be currently enrolled or continuing NYU Tandon School of Engineering students who are studying on the Brooklyn campus.
- Remain in good standing with national or international umbrella organizations or headquarters (if affiliated). Organizations that are suspended by their national or international headquarters will be automatically placed on inactive status with the University.
- Abide by all OSARC and Student Council funding, club purchasing card, and reimbursement policies
- Comply with the OSARC travel policy, including registering all student club travel outside the five boroughs of New York City
- Follow all other club/organization policies outlined by Student Council, OSARC, and the University
- Follow all University policies and procedures

Failure to abide by the requirements of Active status may result in a club being placed on Probation status.

III. Probation – OSARC will evaluate the status of each club at the end of each semester. If a student organization has gone a significant amount of time during the year without regular activity (minimum of three events per semester) and/or fails to complete tasks as specified for active clubs, that include but are not limited to meetings with assigned GA, following event registration policies and procedures, following financial/purchasing card policies and procedures, compliance with the Handbook, etc. during an academic year, they will be placed on probation for the following semester. They will be required to abide by the following terms in order to regain their recognition status for the following semester and beyond:

- Meet with their assigned GA during the first month of the semester to review their mission statement and outline customized goals for the probationary semester
- Meet bi-weekly with their assigned GA to review goals, funding usage, and event planning
- Host a minimum of three events during probation semester and track attendance via the NYU Events Check-in app for all events
- Meet monthly with their selected faculty advisor to review goals and club progress
- Schedule a final recognition review meeting with their assigned GA to review goals and semester progress. Following this meeting, the GA will make a recommendation regarding status
- Clubs and organizations who fail to meet their probationary requirements for two consecutive semesters will be moved to inactive status

IV. Inactive Status – Clubs that have failed to meet their probationary terms for two consecutive semesters, maintain membership requirements (4 executive board members, 8 non-executive members), decide they no longer want to be recognized on the NYU Tandon campus, violate federal, state, or local laws, and/or egregiously violate OSARC, NYU Tandon, and/or NYU policies or procedures at the discretion of the Director of Student Affairs will be placed on inactive status. Clubs on inactive status are essentially closed. Once placed on inactive status, students must apply for new club recognition if interested in reviving the student club.

BENEFITS AND PRIVILEGES OF RECOGNIZED ORGANIZATIONS

- Use of designated University space for meetings and programs, including space at both the Tandon School of Engineering and space designated for club use in other NYU facilities
- Access to funding in support of club events and programs

RESTRICTIONS

Clubs WILL NOT be considered for recognition if they do not meet the following basic criteria:

- Clubs engaging in activities the University deems as posing personal health or safety risks to participants

- Social fraternities/sororities or societies not affiliated with an academic or service interest
- Any club sports or organizations of a recreational nature

SIMPLE STEPS FOR RECOGNITION: A CHECKLIST

The following procedures are required of NEW organizations and are detailed instructions which expand upon the descriptions presented in the section above:

Step 1: Recruit Leaders and Members

Membership must be comprised of and open to all of the NYU Tandon School of Engineering community's degree-seeking students.

- Faculty, staff, and alumni may be non-voting members of an organization.
- Students who are not registered for classes in a given semester may not take part in student activities, including membership and/or leadership in student organizations.
- Fourteen (14) total members are required at minimum, which includes four executive board officers, who are NYU Tandon students.
- NYU students enrolled in a full-time program with another school of NYU may join the organization; however, their total amount should not exceed 30% of the general membership and, at minimum, four executive board officers must be NYU Tandon students.

Student organization officers must be currently enrolled or continuing NYU Tandon students, in good standing at the University, with a cumulative grade point average of 2.3 or higher (undergraduate) and 3.0 or higher (graduate).

- Good academic standing must be confirmed by OSARC each semester.
- Students on academic probation should have limited status as a member. They should also consult with their faculty advisor about participation in programs.
- When completing the Club Re-Recognition Form (through NYU Engage), officers, through their submission of their information, provide consent to disclose student academic records. The link to the School of Engineering's policy regarding FERPA is: <http://engineering.nyu.edu/academics/code-of-conduct/ferpa>

Student organizations may not restrict membership based on race, gender and/or gender identity or expression, color, creed, religion, age, national origin, ethnicity, disability, veteran or military status, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy, genetic information, marital status, citizenship status, or on any other legally prohibited basis. Such discrimination is unlawful and undermines the character and purpose of the University.

- Social fraternities and sororities are exempt from membership practices based on gender under the provisions of Section 86.14 of Title IX, United States Code.

Step 2: Find an Advisor

All recognized student organizations are required to have an advisor. Advisors may be part-time or full-time faculty or administrative staff members of the university. Student organizations that cannot secure an advisor should consult with the Office of Student Activities and Resource Center.

Step 3: Prepare a Constitution

All student organizations must have a written document in the form of a Constitution that determines the structure of the organization and the operations processes. All clubs and organizations are required to submit their Constitution annually via NYU Engage as part of the re-recognition process. The constitution and by-laws on file are the only constitution and by-laws recognized by the University as governing an organization's recognition status. It is important to note that University policies will supersede the constitution of the organization and that University policies and procedures for recognized student organizations will supersede any policies and procedures from parent or affiliate organizations.

The Office of Student Activities and Resource Center has created a Model Constitution that all recognized student clubs and organizations MUST use in the preparation of their constitution. The Model Constitution includes all University required language as well as suggestions and best practices.

Step 4: Create a Recruitment Strategy and Plan Your Events

Think about how you will participate in Club Fest and recruit (and retain) members. Start planning events by thinking of 2-3 activities, programs, socials, presentations you would like the organization to execute. These should be the kinds of activities that support your mission, and that would be of interest to both your members and the NYU Tandon community. Returning organizations need to submit a review and assessment of these activities at the end of each school year in order to be eligible for re-recognition.

Step 5: Submit a COMPLETED Club/Org. Registration Form via NYU Engage

All registration and re-registration forms will be completed and submitted through NYU Engage. Re-registration for all clubs is done by clicking "Update Now" or "Manage Profile" under the profile tab on NYU Engage. You must update all information including incoming executive board members, constitution updates, etc., in order to complete the re-registration process. Failure to complete this process will result in a club being placed on inactive status for the following academic year.

CLUB NAME/USE OF UNIVERSITY NAME

Use of "NYU Tandon School of Engineering" as part of a club name is restricted to "at NYU" or "at New York University". For example your club is not authorized to use the name "NYU Tandon Theatre Club" but is authorized to use the name "Theatre Club at NYU Tandon School of Engineering".

Clubs may not identify themselves as an "Office", "Council", "Board", "Center", "Department", or other names commonly used to identify official governing bodies, administrative offices, or academic areas of the University. In cases where a club is a campus chapter of a national organization that includes these terms, OSARC will consider an exception to this policy.

WITHDRAWAL OF RECOGNITION AND SANCTIONING STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

If University procedures are violated, student organization sanctions may include but are not limited to: written warning; suspension of the organization recognition; and withdrawal of organization recognition. Individuals may also be sanctioned by the University for their role in violating policy.

RELATIONSHIP WITH THE UNIVERSITY

- NO organization will be allowed to appear on a commercially sponsored or radio or television program.
- NO organization shall be in any publication, radio or television broadcast, public performance, or otherwise purport to represent the views or opinions of NYU.
- ANY form of advertising for a student organization sponsored event using the NYU/NYU Tandon School of Engineering name and/or logo must be stamped and approved by the Office of Student Activities and Resource Center. Use of the University's name and/or logo is restricted to the guidelines provided in the NYU Identity Guide.

- Failure to adhere to these policies may result in loss of recognition status or sanctions to the organization or individual as determined by the Office of Student Activities and Resource Center, as well as the Office of Student Affairs.

DISSOLUTION OF AN ORGANIZATION

If an organization wishes to dissolve its chapter as a recognized student organization of NYU Tandon School of Engineering it must take the following steps:

- A Written Statement/Letter – an executive officer of the organization must put in writing that they are planning to dissolve the organization.
- Get Advisor consent – the organization must have their advisor sign the letter or statement wishing to dissolve the organization or email OSARC directly confirming their understanding that the organization will be dissolved.
- Submit the written statement to the Office of Student Activities as soon as the decision is made and consent is placed in writing – All financial accounts and outstanding budgetary issues must be settled before the organization is allowed to fully dissolve.
 - During the process, all executive board members are responsible for any outstanding issues related to the organization, including but not limited to financial issues and administrative areas.

FACULTY ADVISORS

The relationship your advisor and the members of your group develop is critical to the overall success of your group. Group members should look for an advisor who is committed to the purpose and goals of your organization, who is willing to listen and support the goals and objectives of the membership. Your advisor can serve as a great resource, especially in the following ways:

- Serve as “sounding board” off of which you can bounce new ideas
- Intervene in conflicts between members or officers
- Be knowledgeable of policies that may impact your organization’s programs and decisions
- Act as a liaison with academic departments
- Provide continuity and stability when student leadership changes
- Provide a different and/or alternative perspective regarding issues

Faculty and staff who serve as advisors to student organizations do so voluntarily. Steps should be taken to make sure the involvement is a rewarding experience for the entire group, including the advisor. Therefore, group leaders and members should:

- Discuss expectations with the advisor from the beginning.
- Train your advisor on NYU Engage, especially how to approve events, and make sure they have been added to your portal.
- Notify the advisor of all meetings well in advance, and encourage their attendance.
- Send the advisor a copy of all meeting minutes.
- Consult with the advisor prior to making changes in the structure or policies of the organization and before major projects are undertaken.

- Inform the advisor of all planned programs and events.
- Understand that although the advisor does not vote, they should have speaking privileges.
- Remember that the responsibility for the success or failure of a group project rests ultimately with the group, not the advisor.
- Periodically evaluate the advisor and provide them with constructive feedback about how they might be more helpful to the group.
- Acknowledge the advisor's service to the group and remember to say "thank you."

As an advisor to a student group, the advisor should:

- Be familiar with the purpose of the student organization as stated in the organization constitution.
- Understand the critical role that advising and faculty interaction have in the success and overall development of our students and their effective functioning in a multicultural and diverse society.
- Have knowledge of and advise the group on the policies and procedures of the Office of Student Activities and Resource Center.
- Have knowledge of and advise the group on University policies as referred to in the Student Club and Organization Handbook.
- Meet with the group regularly – and help them set their goals for the year. Attendance at group meetings is strongly encouraged and recommended.
- Provide guidance in programming, planning, and budgeting as needed.
- Approve, in a timely manner, club/organization events that are submitted via NYU Engage. Ideally, the advisor should be aware of the event ahead of time, including the proposed content and budget. OSARC cannot approve a club/organization event until the faculty advisor approves it.
- Understand their role is primarily consultative – the members of the organization are responsible for policies and decisions. An advisor should express their concern if the policies and decisions the group makes are in violation of any policy or guidelines related to NYU Tandon School of Engineering as well as local, state, or federal law. If the advisor expresses a concern and the group does not listen, the advisor is obligated to report the issue to the Office of Student Activities & Resource Center.
- Attempt to attend all of their group events, on and off campus, or make arrangements for another member of the faculty or staff to support the program in their absence.

Faculty Advisors should:

- Assist group members in the development of a Mission Statement including goals for the organization and a Constitution
- Provide support and serve as a resource for the group throughout the entire academic year
- Advise group officers on the University's policies for recognized student organizations
- Assist group in election of officers and support group through the transitions
- Assist group members in the development of a yearly calendar of events
- Serve as a liaison between the group and OSARC
- Assist the group in the development and maintenance of a budget
- Approve group event requests through NYU Engage

SECTION 3: FUNDING RESOURCES & PROCEDURES

GENERAL FUNDING PROCESS

Student organizations recognized by the University receive various forms of support from the Office of Student Activities and Resource Center and Student Council. The Office of Student Activities and Resource Center and Student Councils assist organizations by funding programs benefiting the entire student population.

General Funding Policies:

- All clubs and organizations will receive an initial funding allocation at the beginning of each semester. This allocation is to be used for programming for the semester in which it is allocated. Organizations are not required to submit requests to use their initial funding allocation for events, but are required to follow the spending guidelines outlined below and follow the reimbursement procedure in order to be reimbursed from their account. Funding decisions are based on amount spent in previous semesters and engagement level, as measured by number of events and attendance. Failure to register events on NYU Engage and/or take attendance in the NYU Events Check-in app may result in a reduction in funding for the following semester. OSARC reserves the right to decrease a club's funding in response to failure to adhere to policies and procedures outlined in the OSARC Student Club and Organization Handbook.
- Funds will not roll over from semester to semester. If any organization would like to roll over their funding from Fall to Spring semester ONLY, they must meet with their Graduate Assistant to request a rollover by December 1st. Exceptions will be granted by OSARC on a case-by-case basis. No funding can be rolled between academic years.
- All club purchasing card transactions must be reconciled using the online platform within three (3) business days of the purchase. The reconciliation must include a valid receipt and approved event request. OSARC reserves the right to deny reconciliation requests that are made after the established deadline.
- All reimbursements, regardless of which funding source they come from, must be turned in within two (2) weeks of the event or the final semester deadline set by OSARC (usually the last day of classes), whichever comes first and must include the reimbursement form, approved event request, and original receipt(s). OSARC reserves the right to deny reimbursements that are made after the established deadline.
- Student Council allows for supplemental funding requests to be made once per month. Any student organization wishing to obtain supplemental funding must submit the Supplemental Funding Request Form via NYU Engage by the monthly supplemental funding deadline. Limited supplemental funding is available. Therefore, organizations should ensure that they are using their initial allocation to its full potential before requesting supplemental funding.

Organization Spending Guidelines

- Initial Allocation and/or Supplemental Funding can be used for:
 - Catering (Suggested $4-$5/pp for snacks, $7-$10/pp for meals)
 - Advertising, printing, copying, etc.
 - Supplies, decorations, etc.
 - General Body Meetings

- o Speaker/Presenter Fees
- o Off-campus events, with prior approval from OSARC
- Initial Allocation and/or Supplemental Funding cannot be used for:
 - o Alcohol or other drugs
 - o Prizes
 - o Giftcards
 - o Gifts for participants, presenters, or advisors including t-shirts
 - o Conferences and competitions, unless explicitly approved by the Director of Student Affairs and Student Activities. Organizations are encouraged to solicit outside funding for these opportunities, as they usually only apply to individual students and not the entire organization
 - o Events that are not open to the entire student body. RSVP lists are allowed, but funding is not to be used for closed events such as executive board meetings, volunteer appreciation events, executive board transitions, etc.
 - o Fundraisers, including supplies, food, advertising, etc.
 - o Membership fees, scholarships, etc.
 - o Supplies for events outside of the current semester, unless explicitly approved by the Director of Student Affairs and Student Activities
 - o Events taking place during the Summer, unless explicitly approved by the Director of Student Affairs and Student Activities

FUNDRAISING, SPONSORSHIP & REVENUE ACCOUNTS

Fundraising

Any fundraising activity related to your organization is considered an event. If your organization would like to hold a fundraiser, please complete the Event Request Form on NYU Engage at least three (3) weeks prior to the event and identify that the event is a Fundraiser on said form.

If your organization is holding a fundraising event, you may not use your initial allocation or supplemental funding to purchase supplies, food, advertising materials, etc. A club may refund members for out-of-pocket expenses related to the event, in exchange for original receipts, out of funds collected before depositing them with OSARC by completing the Collection of Funds Form available on NYU Engage. Under no circumstances should a club/organization keep the cash/checks in their possession.

Sponsorship

If your club/organization plans on soliciting funds from NYU Alumni, NYU Faculty, Staff and Administration, or external corporate donors, your club MUST meet with OSARC prior to solicitation for specific feedback and protocol.

Prior to meeting with OSARC, please prepare a drafted letter and a list of all potential donors you plan to contact for donations. OSARC has created a template of a letter that your organization can use (available on NYU Engage) or create its own to meet the organization's needs. Items that should be included in the letter are:

- Introduction of your club and its mission
- Reason as to why you are reaching out to this individual/department/company
- How the organization will utilize the funds that are being requested
- List of the goals for the upcoming academic year
- A brief description of what your organization does outside of the planned use of funds
- Sponsorship levels and incentives for the donor
- Information of where to send payment, if they agree to donate to the organization

After meeting with OSARC and distributing donation requests, update OSARC as donations are confirmed so that the office is aware of incoming checks and deposits. This information is used to track your club's donations in NYU Engage.

Collecting Money Electronically

For purposes of fundraising or sponsorship, clubs are permitted to collect money electronically using mobile payment services.

For Venmo, Paypal, etc., clubs must:

- Select a student who is willing to use their personal account to collect the funds. OSARC strongly recommends choosing the club president or treasurer and only using ONE student for an entire academic year.
- Create a description for your event that can be put in the memo section of the transaction. This description MUST include the name of the club, date of the event, and name of the event (e.g. OSARC – 01/05/18 – Hurricane Relief Fundraiser) and must be included on EACH donation. OSARC recommends including the description on your marketing and having it readily available for donors to use.
- Withdraw all donations IN CASH from the account holder's bank account with one (1) business day of the event.
- Turn in the cash, the Collection of Funds Form, and a printed statement from the mobile payment service that accounts for all donations within one (1) business day of the event. The total of all donations on the statement marked with the event description (see above) MUST MATCH the total amount turned in.
- NOTE: NYU does not have a method to provide clubs with a physical bank account to tie to a mobile payment service. Clubs who elect to use this option should do so with the understanding that it is tied to an individual student's bank account and therefore, any money collected is not secured or guaranteed by NYU. Clubs and students using mobile payment services should understand the inherent risks before choosing these methods.

For Eventbrite, clubs must:

- Register their event on NYU Engage and receive OSARC approval before creating an Eventbrite. For events that require a copay or ticket purchase, please include this in the event request and email your GA with the following information: why you need attendees to pay rather than covering costs with club funding, cost breakdown, an event description, ticket cost, any instructions for participants, and timeline for sales. All funds collected via Eventbrite MUST be used for paying for the specified event.

- Make an appointment with their GA at least two (2) weeks before the ticket sale start date to set up an Eventbrite page using the official OSARC account. Clubs MAY NOT use personal Eventbrite accounts to collect funds.
- Appoint one member of your club to serve as the point of contact for any questions that come through Eventbrite.
- Communicate any changes to ticket quantities, pricing, deadlines, etc. to your GA during the selling process. All changes to the Eventbrite MUST be made by the GA.
- Process any refunds with the GA within five (5) days after the event. Eventbrite will not process refunds more than 5 days after the event.
- Once the event is complete and your check has arrived, you will be contacted by your GA to complete a Collection of Funds form to deposit the money in your Revenue Account.

Organizational Revenue Accounts

Revenue accounts are created for clubs that raise funds through active fundraising and donations. Revenue account balances roll over from year to year and may be used in a future fiscal year.

All monies raised by the organization must be submitted with the completed Collection of Funds form to OSARC in order to be deposited into your organization's account to be used ONLY by your organization. Organizations must return the form with any money that was collected to LC 221 for deposit into the organization's account on the next business day following the fundraising event and/or receipt of a donation, with the funds being given directly to a staff member. A club may refund members for out-of-pocket expenses related to the event, in exchange for original receipts, out of the funds collected before depositing them. Under no circumstances should a club/organization keep the cash/checks in their possession. Monies deposited in the organization's revenue account may be used for any purchases, including prizes, gifts, conferences, competitions, and other areas where initial allocation and supplemental funding cannot be used, with the exception of alcohol/drugs and any other items, materials, substances, etc. that are defined as illegal and/or against NYU policy.

CLUB PURCHASING GUIDELINES

Most club expenses are paid for in one of three ways: (1) using a club purchasing card, (2) on a reimbursement basis from the club's initial allocation, supplemental funding, and/or revenue account, OR (3) through an arrangement with OSARC (for large purchases only).

Club Purchasing Card

Each club will be issued a NYU purchasing card (credit card) for their use. The purchasing card will be in the name of the club and carry over from one year to the next. Club presidents and treasurers are designated as the primary card holders and must complete training at the beginning of their term in order to be able to use the card.

Purchasing Card Reconciliation Process

- Club presidents and treasurers are responsible for maintaining their card. They will check it out from OSARC at the beginning of the academic year and must return it at the end of the year. They are responsible for checking the card in and out to club members and tracking it on a log that is shared (via Google Drive) with their GA.
- Once a purchase is made, the purchaser should email a photo or scan of the receipt along with a description of the purchase and the event name and date it was made for to the club president and treasurer.
- Within 3 business days, the president or treasurer must reconcile the expense in GRAM by:
 - Uploading ONE supporting document that contains the receipt and the approved Event Details sheet from NYU Engage
 - Entering an Expense Description that contains the source of the funding (initial allocation, supplemental allocation, or revenue fund) AND the event name and date (e.g. INITIAL – ASCE General Body Mtg – 9/4/17)
- The club's Graduate Assistant will review the expense and receipt, enter the correct chartfield number, and track the expense in NYU Engage.
- Once the Graduate Assistant has reviewed the expense, an OSARC professional staff member will complete the final review process.

Purchasing Card Policies

- All presidents and treasurers must complete the OSARC purchasing card training in order to use the club purchasing card.
- All purchases must follow the OSARC initial, supplemental, and revenue fund spending guidelines. Any purchases made in violation of the spending guidelines will be denied and the club/individual must reimburse OSARC from their revenue fund or personal funds.
- All receipts must be uploaded within 3 business days. Failure to reconcile expenses within 3 business days may result in the loss of the card.
- The card limit will be set to the club's initial allocation for the semester, plus any supplemental funding that is granted. Club officers are responsible for communicating with their GA if they need money from their revenue account added to the card. There is also a limit per transaction for each club. If club members need to make a purchase larger than this limit, please contact your Graduate Assistant.
- Club leaders should notify OSARC staff members immediately in the case of a denied transaction.
- Club leaders should notify OSARC staff members immediately in the case of a lost/stolen card. OSARC reserves the right to deny replacement for a lost card.
- Club leaders should notify OSARC staff members immediately in the case that the president or treasurer has stepped down, been removed, and/or been replaced.
- OSARC reserves the right to alter the card limit and/or revoke the purchasing card at any time for any reason. The club purchasing card is a privilege, not a right, and should be treated as such.

Reimbursement Process

The reimbursement process depends on the amount of the expense. For all reimbursements and payments, certain documents are required for accounting and auditing purposes. Pre-arrangements for large expenditures or questionable expenditures should be processed with OSARC staff.

Reimbursement of anything less than $300

- Student club submits a Student Expense Reimbursement with documentation for the purchase (itemized original receipt, invoice, contract, etc.) AND a copy of the NYU Engage event request form from the event to LC 223. Be sure that the Club Name, Student Name, N-number, Address, Signature, and E-mail are included.
- You will receive an email notification when your reimbursement form has been processed and is ready to be picked up in LC223. Once picked up, you can take that form to StudentLink for a cash reimbursement.

Reimbursement of anything greater than $300

- Student club submits a Student Expense Reimbursement with documentation for the purchase (itemized original receipt, invoice, contract, etc.) AND a copy of the NYU Engage event request form from the event to LC 223. Be sure that the Club Name, Student Name, N-number, Address, Signature, and E-mail are included.
- You will receive an email notification when your reimbursement form has been processed and is ready to be picked up in LC228. Once picked up, you can take that form to StudentLink and will have a check mailed to the listed address in approx. 4-8 weeks.

Payments through OSARC

For payments to external vendors or individuals via check OR large purchases, please make an appointment with your Graduate Assistant to review the expense and the payment process.

Checks (vendors and individuals – under $1000)

- Any clubs making payments to external vendors or individuals must contact their Graduate Assistant to start the vendor enrollment process. The vendor enrollment process takes approximately 1-2 weeks based on the response time of the vendor. After vendor enrollment approval is granted, a check will be requested and is usually mailed 4-6 weeks after the check request is approved.

Purchase Orders (vendors and individuals – over $1000)

- Club must meet with a professional staff member to review the process. A purchase order must be created, which entails approving the vendor with NYU (if not already an approved vendor), using a contract or price quote to create the PO, and submitting an invoice for payment.
- Clubs must request a PO at least 30 days before their event.
- Payment via PO takes at least 30 days after the date of the event.

SECTION 4: MEETINGS

RUNNING A MEETING

Meetings are vital to the sustainment of organization and your members. You should use these times to communicate important announcements, dates, and plan events. While the specific details of meetings are dependent on the individual organization the overall structure should generally remain as follows:

- Old Business
 - Review previous meeting minutes
 - Assessing previous events
- New Business
 - Upcoming events
 - Brainstorming, logistics & planning for future events
 - Next meeting's agenda

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURES

Formally, parliamentary procedure is recommended for all your group's business meetings. By following the rules of parliamentary procedure (Robert's Rules of Order) the chairperson/president is able to conduct the meeting in an orderly, respectful manner allowing everyone the opportunity to participate. These principles and procedures help maintain order and ensure fairness in all decision-making processes. Robert's Rules of Order has become the leading authority in most organizations today.

The basic principles behind parliamentary procedure are:

- The vote of the majority rules
- All members have equal rights, privileges, and obligations
- The minority has rights, which must be protected
- Full and free discussions of every proposal/motion presented for discussion is an established right
- Motions (formal proposals that the group take a specific action) have a definite and logical order
- The simplest and most direct procedure for accomplishing a purpose should be followed
- Only one question/subject can be considered at a time
- When a motion is made, seconded and stated by the Chairperson, the body is not allowed to consider any other business until the motion has been dealt with. In general, all motions should be seconded.

Duties of the Chairperson/President:

The chairperson/president runs the meeting, unless they appoint someone else to fill this role. The chairperson/president should:

- Call the meeting to order
- Announce the business according to the agenda
- Entertain motions, encourage discussion (recognizing one person at a time)
- Make sure members follow the rules of order
- State and put to a vote all motions
- Take the vote (usually a majority vote is needed to pass a motion)

- Once a vote is taken the chairperson/president should make sure that the members share the responsibility for further action and that a timetable for completion of the task(s) is agreed upon

If you would like more information about Robert's Rules of Order please go to: <http://www.robertsrules.com/>

PREPARING AN AGENDA

In a meeting, the person leading the meeting should work from the agenda. The meeting agenda should clearly outline the intended objectives of the meeting including the issues to be discussed, the order of discussion, and the time available to accomplish them. It should also provide the framework for keeping the meeting on target.

The agenda should be headed with the date, time, and location of the meeting. Be sure to submit the agenda to the participants with any necessary additional paperwork as early as possible to give them enough time to prepare. This is the best way to ensure that those attending your meeting will be clear about the purpose of the meeting. You should request agenda items ahead of time and place a deadline on when items can be submitted for integration into the meeting.

The following is a sample of items for meeting agenda according to Robert's Rules of Order:

- Approval of previous meeting minutes
- Reports of officers and standing committees
- Reports of special committees
- Unfinished Business
- New Business
- Adjournment

MINUTES AND ATTENDANCE

All clubs and organizations are required to keep minutes of their meetings. Minutes should reflect all the decisions reached by the group, including budget recommendations and requests to modify budgets.

- Members should be asked to sign an attendance list, which must be attached to the minutes of the meeting.
- Minutes and the attendance list for clubs should be kept on file for your own use.
- The easiest way to organize minutes is to follow the agenda outline for your meeting.
 - The minutes should be typed and signed by the person who recorded them.
 - A copy of the minutes should be made available to all group members and your organization's advisor.

QUORUM

All groups must have an agreed and stated quorum for their meetings included in their Constitution. A quorum is the minimum number of members who must be present in order to conduct business. The chairperson/president must know what constitutes a quorum for a meeting before calling the meeting to order. To establish that a quorum is present, the chairperson/president can take an actual headcount, the secretary can call the roll, or members can sign in. Never conduct a business meeting without a quorum present. If business is transacted without quorum, it is considered null and void. It is also important that the quorum be present for the entire meeting. If a member notices that a quorum is no longer present, it is their obligation to inform the chairperson/president of the situation. At that time, no more business can be transacted. Examples of business include, but are not limited to, voting on issues/activities and major decisions related to the organization.

MEETING TIPS

- Do what you can to maintain the group's interest and do not permit one individual to dominate the meeting.
- Watch out for "group think"; don't allow conformity to control decision-making.
- Attack problems, not the people who cause them.
- Be firm with ramblers and appropriately deal with irrelevant comments.
- Avoid words that may have multiple interpretations and generalizations (words such as "always" and "never").
- Avoid hurtful, bias, offensive language, as well as words or phrases that are emotionally charged.
- Present information by first providing a framework for it.

- NYU is not responsible for the content of those external web sites or other social media sites managed and maintained by other parties, including student organizations.
- NYU Tandon does not regularly review content posted on social media sites but, it shall have the right to remove any content for any reason such as:
 - Content that is deemed threatening, profane, obscene, a violation of intellectual property rights or privacy laws, off-topic, commercial or promotion of organizations or programs not affiliated with the University.
- Users are fully responsible for the content they load on any of NYU social media sites as well as their own student organization created pages.

- Please note that other participants may use posted information beyond the control of NYU Tandon OSARC.
- Users who do not wish to have information they have made available via these sites used, published, copied and/or reprinted, should not post on the social media sites.

As organizations create and use social media outlets, here are some guidelines and expectations for use:

- All student leaders and organizations should be cognizant of the type of information and content that is being disseminated and/or posted on their social media sites.
- When using the Internet for social networking and promotion, student organization leaders should use privacy settings to safeguard personal information and content to the extent possible, but should realize that privacy settings are not absolute and that once on the Internet, content is likely there permanently.
- If they interact with students and other parties on the Internet, student leaders must maintain appropriate boundaries such as separating personal and professional/organizational content online.
- When students see content posted by others that appears unprofessional, they have a responsibility to bring that content to the attention of the officer or student leader who monitors the site, so that they can remove it and/or take other appropriate actions.
 - If the behavior or online action significantly violates policy, an organization representative should report the matter to the Office of Student Activities and Resource Center, who may choose to refer the matter to the Office of Community Standards and Compliance if appropriate.
- All organizations must recognize that actions online and content posted may negatively affect their reputations among the NYU community, may have consequences for their academic career, and can undermine the integrity of their organization.
- The actions and opinions of student organizations on social media outlets, such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, etc., do not necessarily reflect those of the students, staff, faculty, or administration of the NYU Tandon School of Engineering or New York University.
