

Practical Research Experience Program

Your Summer in Munich, Your Research in Excellence

www.international.tum.de/en/prep

Program Overview

Research Project Participation

partners

Structured research internship program
For select North American

Min. 10 weeks of research in summer (May 26 – August 13, 2020) Highly competitive admission process

Framework Program

Orientation Week & PREP Events
Industry Visits
Excursions
Local Activities
Student Buddies

(Image: Nancy Zhang / TUM)

Central Services

Scholarship
Accomodation Support (mostly dorm offer)

FCTS Credits

Designated Program Manager

(Image: Ulrich Benz / TUM)

Program Objectives

- Creating international research opportunities for excellent North American students at TUM & in the middle of Munich's technology and innovation hub
- Strengthening international research collaborations between international faculty members

(Images: Ulrich Benz / TUM)

Participation Prerequisites

Candidate Prerequisites

- Enrolled at a TUM PREP partner university
- Bachelor or master student
   (min. 2 years of undergraduate studies upon arrival)
- GPA minimum of 3.0 (4.0 scale)
- Project-specific skills (for some projects)
- No German skills required

(Image: Ulrich Benz / TUM)

Application and Admission

- Application period: October 1 November 29, 2019
- Online Application via TUM PREP website (at least 2 ranked project priorities possible)
- Pre-selection by partner universities possible
- TUM International Center tries to place students according to their prioritizations
- Final selection done by project supervisors/ researchers
- Admission letters: late January, 2020

Available Disciplines 2020

Over 80 projects available in 15 departments

(Image: Christina Riedl / TUM)

Contact

