

Constitution of the Undergraduate Student Council

New York University Tandon School of Engineering

Article I: Name

The name of this organization shall be the “Undergraduate Student Council of the New York University Tandon School of Engineering.” The Undergraduate Student Council shall be referred to in this constitution as the Student Council, TUSC, or the Council and New York University Tandon School of Engineering shall be referred to as Tandon.

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of the Student Council shall be to:

Serve as the officially designated representative of the undergraduate student body and to advocate to the administration and corporation (Board of Trustees) on behalf of the student body and, when requested, provide student representatives to committees;

Seek student input, ideas, suggestions, evaluations, and comments on all aspects of the operation of Tandon and to channel student comments to the appropriate administrators or faculty members;

Provide guidance and assistance to clubs and organizations regarding programs, events, services, and financial matters and serve as a communications mechanism between all such student groups;

Enhance the educational mission of Tandon by providing social, cultural, educational, and developmental programs, events, and services;

Enhance the educational experience of Tandon students by providing value towards their Innovation and Entrepreneurial goals, providing leadership opportunities, Community and Global building, and in the process being transparent about our use of resources.

Assure that all events, programs, and services offered by student clubs, organizations, societies, and other groups are open to all undergraduate students of the NYU community regardless of race, sex, religion, national origin, physical disability, sexual orientation, or age except as permitted by law.

New York University is committed to equal treatment and opportunity for its students, to maintaining an environment that is free of bias, prejudice, discrimination, and harassment, and to establishing complaint procedures for allegations involving students.

Protect the rights and responsibilities of the undergraduate student body and work with other members of the Tandon community to maintain and improve the quality of education and social experience received at Tandon.

Article III: Duties and Powers

Section 1.

The Student Council retains the right to provide programs, events, and services in accordance with its stated purpose. Additionally, the Student Council reserves for itself additional duties and powers as prescribed by this constitution.

Section 2.

The Student Council shall supervise and conduct its own elections according to procedures provided in this constitution and rules established by the New York University Student Government Assembly.

Section 3.

The Student Council may arrange and conduct special assembly meetings of the student body or portions of the student body if deemed necessary. The Student Council may conduct surveys to understand students' wants and needs.

Section 4.

The Student Council may arrange meetings with Administration in order to discuss goals and initiatives to improve the student experience at Tandon.

Section 5.

The Student Council may establish reasonable requirements for membership of the Student Council providing that such requirements are consistent with Tandon policy, federal and state law, and the rules of the Student Council, and are applied to all members. These requirements may include, but are not limited to, office hours, minimum meeting requirements, committee requirements, and minimum grade point average requirements.

Article IV: Membership

Section 1. Membership Definition

The Student Council members are defined as all elected or appointed persons to any of the positions in this article. Members of the Student Council will be elected or appointed in accordance with this constitution and its by-laws and any additional resolutions established by the election committee and approved by the entire council.

Section 2. Academic Eligibility

Membership in the Student Council shall be open to all undergraduate students pursuing a degree at the Tandon School of Engineering. Additionally, all Student Council members must be in good academic standing as defined by the Tandon Student Handbook and must hold a minimum grade point average of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. Paragraph C.

If charges are being brought against the President, written charges shall be submitted to the Vice President who shall then call for and preside over a special session of the Student Council and present the charges. In any event, neither the member being charged nor the member initiating the charges shall preside over the meeting.

Article XII: Constitutional Amendment

Section 1: Amendments

Any member of the Student Council may propose an amendment to this constitution. The presiding officer may then engage in any necessary discussion. The presiding officer may, upon their discretion, choose to have the author of the proposal present the proposed amendment to the entire council and disclose any necessary rationale. Any proposed amendment carried out by the council becomes effective immediately or as soon as stated in the amendment or as otherwise agreed upon by the entire council.

Paragraph A.

Proposals shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary who shall duplicate the proposal as necessary and present it in the next council meeting. The proposed amendment shall be voted upon in the next council meeting.

Paragraph B.

The President shall present the constitution to the entire council at least once per term to make changes during any given Council meeting. Amendments passed will be made accordingly during the meeting of the constitution.
